PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

SUPERINTENDENT’S REPORT

1. Dr. Doug Domene discussed the start of school year, and what he calls, "The Miracle of the First Day." Thirty-five sites had to be ready to go on Tuesday, September 1, for nearly 26,000 students and their parents as they all arrived at school at the same time. Everything was timed perfectly. This huge task was accomplished thanks to our Maintenance team lead by Rick Guaderrama, Tony Nequette, and Jim Evans.
2. Dr. Domene also thanked the District's Technology team for their tireless efforts implementing new Chromebooks at various sites; Transportation Services for cleaning and waxing dozens of buses; and Nutrition Services and Suzanne Morales' team of cooks, servers, and food specialists for feeding our students. Obviously, there are too many individuals to name, but every employee of our district worked hard to make sure all the schools were ready. He extended a heartfelt thank you to everyone.

BOARD REPORT

1. Mrs. Carrie Buck reported that she drove around on the first day of school to see just how lovely the school sites looked and reported that thanks to everyone’s hard work it all looked beautiful. She mentioned that she sits on the OCSBA Board of Directors with Mrs. Karin Freeman, and they had their first meeting a few weeks ago. There is 100 percent participation of Orange County districts in OCSBA, so it is nice to have full representation. Mrs. Buck said that she had already been to several back to school nights, and there is so much happening that is new.
2. Mrs. Carol Downey mentioned that she attended the Tenured Reception for teachers that took place today. She reported that the teachers appeared to be a happy group, and it was very nice to congratulate them. She also mentioned that she has been going to ball games and appreciated the rain today as it should help all the fields look a little greener.
3. Mrs. Karin Freeman visited the front administration offices at over 20 schools on the first day of school and noted that it was very enjoyable to talk to staff at the front counter. Everyone was very positive about what they were hearing and seeing. Mrs. Freeman attended ROP last week and a lot was shared that day. When they discussed PYLUSD, they mentioned that Yorba Linda High School has a new teacher for American Sign Language (ASL) who is considered ideal for teaching ASL because she is deaf. Full immersion is considered the best way to go. It was conveyed that there is wonderful technology available for the teacher to communicate with parents and staff. It has been a busy start to the year.
4. Mrs. Judi Carmona reminisced that she was at Travis Ranch many years ago on the very first day it opened and walked her two sons to their classroom for their first day of school; so, it was with a great deal of pleasure that she went to the first day of school at Travis Ranch again this year to take her granddaughter to first grade. Mrs. Carmona said she is planning to schedule several school site visits in the coming weeks. She also mentioned she will be attending both the Yorba Linda State of the City Lunch and the Placentia Prayer Breakfast.

5. Mr. Eric Padget gave a shout out to district staff for all the hard work that went in to the preparation for the start of school. He especially thanked Mr. Rick Guaderrama and his team as this is kind of a closure to all the big projects they have worked on for many years including all the projects under Measure Y and Measure A bonds. A lot has been accomplished, and it is evident from the marvelous district we have especially from a facilities standpoint. It is football and band season and he has been enjoying all the field shows and football games. Mr. Padget is looking forward to getting out to visit some schools.

PLACENTIA-YORBA LINDA UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT

RESOLUTION NO. 14

Week of the School Administrator

WHEREAS Leadership Matters for California’s public education system and the more than 6 million students it serves;

WHEREAS, School administrators are passionate, lifelong learners who believe in the value of quality public education, and

WHEREAS, The title “school administrator” is a broad term used to define many education leadership posts. Superintendents, assistant superintendents, principals, assistant principals, special education and adult education leaders, curriculum and assessment leaders, school business officials, classified educational leaders, and other school district employees are considered administrators; and

WHEREAS, providing quality service for student success is paramount for the profession; and

WHEREAS, Most school administrators began their careers as teachers. The average administrator has served in public education for more than a decade. Most of California’s superintendents have served in education for more than 20 years. Such experience is beneficial in their work to effectively and efficiently lead public education and improve student achievement; and

WHEREAS, Public schools operate with lean management systems. Across the nation, public schools employ fewer managers and supervisors than most public and private sector industries including transportation, food service, manufacturing, utilities, construction, publishing and public administration; and

WHEREAS, School leaders depend on a network of support from school communities – fellow administrators, teachers, parents, students, businesses, community members, board trustees, colleges and universities, community and faith-based organizations, elected officials and district and county staff and resources – to promote ongoing student achievement and school success; and

WHEREAS, Research shows great schools are led by great principals, and great districts are led by great superintendents. These site leaders are supported by extensive administrative networks throughout the state; and

WHEREAS, the State of California has declared the second full week of October as the “Week of the School Administrator” in Education Code 44015.1; and

WHEREAS, The future of California’s public education system depends upon the quality of its leadership;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Placentia-Yorba Linda Unified School District that all school leaders be commended for the contributions they make to successful student achievement.
