BOARD INFORMATION

Discussion item regarding Fourth Quarter Financial Report as of June 30, 2013

COMMUNICATIONS

Communication from Orange County Department of Education regarding the Orange County Committee on School District Organization nominations

BOARD REPORT

- 1. Mrs. Karin Freeman indicated she had attended the North Orange County Regional Occupational Program (NOCROP) fall inservice. She was pleased to report that the NOCROP had received a six-year clear WASC accreditation following a recent review. In addition, she shared the following news from the HOSA National Convention: Valerie Easton was selected as the HOSA adviser for California; Esperanza HOSA was awarded a silver medal for the bio-medical debate; and Rebecca Catron, a student in Esperanza’s HOSA program, was recognized as a Regional Occupational Program student leader. In conclusion, Mrs. Freeman expressed appreciation to staff for their efforts in preparing for the Management Symposium. It was a very enjoyable event.
- 2. Although she was unable to attend the Management Symposium, Mrs. Judi Carmona indicated many staff members had shared with her that the event was fabulous. She looks forward to an opportunity to hear the message presented at the event.
- 3. Mr. Eric Padget indicated the Management Symposium was a great way to kick off the year and commented that the district’s Performing Arts Center (PAC) was a wonderful venue for the event. He also was pleased that the first performance at the PAC included three PYLUSD graduates. The featured ensemble included these alumni along with other members of the Disney All American Band. Mr. Padget is also pleased that the PYLUSD continues to prioritize fine arts and spoke briefly regarding the important role band continues to play in the lives of his children. On another note, Mr. Padget expressed appreciation for the support the El Dorado High School football team had extended to family and friends at the memorial event for the Canyon High School football player, mentioning in particular the communication the district received from a community member regarding the presence of the EDHS team. Dr. Domene will be meeting with the EDHS football coach and team to thank them for their compassionate support. In conclusion, Mr. Padget emphasized that the Performing Arts Center is a district venue for all PYLUSD schools and for community groups, as well.

4. Mrs. Carrie Buck expressed appreciation for the Management Symposium and mentioned in particular the performance of our PYLUSD graduates and the opportunity to hear a vocal recording of Dr. Domene's father. She also shared that her children had participated in registration at district schools this week.
5. Mrs. Carol Downey thoroughly enjoyed the Management Symposium; it was wonderful! She also was pleased that the PYLUSD has had a culture for many decades that values the arts and shared briefly about the leadership of Superintendents over the years in this area, mentioning in particular former Superintendent John Tynes. We have a great heritage from our leaders. This is a strength of our school district of which she is very proud.
