COMMUNICATIONS

Invitation to California Consortium of Education Foundations 2013 Annual Conference, March 12, 2013

BOARD REPORT

1. Mrs. Karin Freeman thanked everyone involved in the strategic planning process; it will certainly pay dividends for the district. Mrs. Freeman shared that she had been presented a proclamation on behalf of the North Orange County Regional Occupational Program (NOCROP) at Placentia City Hall in recognition of Career Technical Education (CTE) month and added that the District's efforts in this regard had also been acknowledged. In addition, Mrs. Freeman attended the NOCROP's Annual Community Advisory Breakfast and shared a few comments regarding NOCROP Superintendent Michael Worley's presentation. Mrs. Freeman talked briefly regarding American Sign Language which is recognized as a foreign language and provided an informative brochure regarding the NOCROP course offering. Mrs. Freeman attended the Placentia State of the City luncheon and also appreciated the opportunity to meet with APLE President Linda Manion and a number of teachers. Mrs. Freeman visited Woodsboro Elementary School to participate in their Read Across America event and enjoyed the school's presentation of Seussical Junior. With regard to the recent Principal for a Day event, Mrs. Freeman expressed appreciation for the positive comments from community participants, and on another note, indicated she was pleased to see the positive comments in Aztlan, Esperanza High School's newspaper, regarding the HOSA program. Mrs. Freeman appreciated Dr. Domene's presentation as the keynote speaker at the Yorba Linda Chamber of Commerce breakfast and thanked Mrs. Rosemary Gladden for her efforts in coordinating the Principal for a Day event and providing support to Dr. Domene at the Chamber breakfast.
2. Mrs. Judi Carmona was pleased to have attended the Reflections Showcase last month as well as the recent Placentia State of the City luncheon, the Placentia Library Author's Luncheon, and the Yorba Linda Chamber of Commerce breakfast featuring Dr. Domene as the keynote speaker. She also enjoyed participating in the Read Across America event at Woodsboro Elementary School. Mrs. Carmona attended the Kraemer/Valadez/Valencia choral performances and went to the rehearsals for the Tuffree/El Dorado choral performances as her schedule would not permit her attendance at the evening performance. She was also pleased to join Dr. Domene and Mrs. Candy Plahy at the Courage to Create awards ceremony for student artwork and creative writing commemorating Holocaust events and victims at Chapman University. In response to an invitation from Bernardo Yorba Middle School teacher Christine Perez, Mrs. Carmona visited BYMS to learn more about their online student newspaper and commented on the student engagement in the journalism class and the professionalism of the newspaper. She applauds BYMS for this exciting new venture.
3. Mr. Eric Padget expressed his pleasure at seeing the success of district students academically, in the arts, and in athletics. It is a clear indicator of the district's outstanding programs and the dedication of staff. He also appreciated the efforts of community members who had taken the time to attend this evening's Board meeting and share their concerns during Public Comment; the Board does listen and follow up with staff. Mr. Padget thanked Dr. Domene for his leadership and the efforts of staff in establishing a new district strategic plan, indicated he was pleased to have met with APLE President Linda Manion and a number teachers to hear their perspective, and also attended band and jazz band performances, mentioning in particular the large number of students who participate in the performing arts. He is dedicated to keeping visual and performing arts programs going.

- 4. Mrs. Carrie Buck was pleased to have visited a number of schools including Rio Vista and Ruby Drive, mentioning in particular the stewardship campaign that is planned for March 23 by a local church to do some beautification work on those campuses, and suggested that a letter of appreciation be sent to the church. She enjoyed joining Mrs. Downey at a meeting with APLE President Linda Manion and a number of teachers. She also visited Brookhaven, Golden, Fairmont, and Rose Drive Elementary Schools. Mrs. Buck thoroughly enjoyed time getting to know principals who are new to the district and seeing the positive impact of modernization on our campuses. Mrs. Buck mentioned in particular Fairmont Elementary School's Daily Café and Daily 5 programs which have do with reading and writing. Mrs. Buck attended a Business Booster Club meeting at El Camino Real High School and indicated an alumnus had shared his success story with current students. She appreciated the opportunity to attend a recent Superintendent's Community Advisory Council meeting, participated in Woodsboro Elementary School's Read Across America event, attended instrumental music and choir concerts, and met with the student council for Glenview Elementary School. In addition, Mrs. Buck attended Valencia High School's IB orientation and also had opportunity to visit a college prep school in Los Angeles; the difference was astounding. She is so appreciative of the opportunities our students are provided, the technology made available to students, and the caliber of programs and staff in the district. In conclusion, Mrs. Buck indicated she would be participating in the ShamRock 'n Run 5K event sponsored by the REACH Foundation on Sunday, March 17, 2013.
- 5. Mrs. Carol Downey enjoyed the opportunity to meet with APLE President Linda Manion and a number of teachers. She was also pleased to have attended the Reflections Showcase and commented on the level of talent exhibited by district students. Mrs. Downey attended the Yorba Linda Chamber of Commerce breakfast and expressed appreciation for the Superintendent's presentation at the event. She also attended several musical concerts and participated in Woodsboro Elementary School's Read Across America event. In addition, Mrs. Downey shared that she had served as a waiter at Placentia Library's recent Author's Luncheon event featuring author Dean Koontz.
