STUDENT BOARD REPORT

Student Board Representative Emily Drinkwine provided a report of the activities and events occurring at the district’s high schools.

SUPERINTENDENT’S REPORT

Superintendent Domene said he was proud to inform the Board that our very own Head Nurse and Health Services Supervisor Michelle DeHaven, RN, BSN, PHN, was selected by the Orange County School Nurses' Organization (OCSNO) as the School Nurse Supervisor of the Year for Orange County. Michelle will be honored by OCSNO at a banquet on Wednesday, January 20, at the University Club at the University of California, Irvine.

Dr. Domene extended congratulations to Glenknoll Elementary School sixth grader Tyler Armstrong who climbed Mount Cayambe in Ecuador over winter recess. Tyler is raising $1 million toward finding a cure for a rare form of muscular dystrophy, Duchenne.

The Superintendent mentioned that the PYLUSD Gala 2016, our second such event, will be held on Saturday, February 20, at the District's Performing Arts Center (PAC).

In conclusion, Dr. Domene shared that Yorba Linda Middle School has been selected as one of California's 2015-2016 "Schools to Watch – Taking Center Stage" model middle schools. A special ceremony will held in mid-February to honor the school. This program uses a competitive, rigorous review process to identify high-performing, high-impact middle schools, so that all middle schools may have models of real-world success. Yorba Linda Middle School is just one of 78 model schools that have been identified statewide since 2003.
